

THE INSPIRING LUXURY DESIGN OF PALACETE DE CÓRDOBA BY ADRIANA NICOLAU

Adriana Nicolau brings us another inspiring luxury design project: Palacete de Córdoba.

Being one of the best interior designers from Spain means Adriana Nicolau never ceases to surprise us with incredible contemporary luxury design. With remarkable interior design projects on her portfolio, we already know sophistication, uniqueness and timeless design will be present in every new project she takes on. In the incredible Palacete de Córdoba, the design is no exception. Let's take a look at this stunning interior design project!

In this interior design project by the unique Adriana Nicolau, the Palacete de Córdoba is a space where you'll feel amazed by the beauty and personality inside each room, where you can find the characteristic decor style of Adriana Nicolau, that comes from the constant research for unique and modern pieces.

Palacete de Córdoba was the home of the poet Julio Aumente, which had already been restored in the 1950s by the architect Rafael de la Hoz. Adriana's design studio, adjusting to the wishes and needs of the new owners, reorganized all spaces to create a modern, comfortable and functional home.
